WILLIAM D. TILSON CHOSEN UNANIMOUSLY, ALL TEACHERS IN THE DISTRICT HAVING PETITIONED FOR SUCH ACTION—OR- GANIZATION OF THE SCHOOL BOARD.

The adjourned meeting of the board of education of the Central school district was held on Monday evening at the Broadway schoolhouse with all members of the board in attendance.
 The organization for the year was perfected by the election of William D.
 Tilson as chairman and Dr. Jonathan H. Allen as secretary, both believing that they have the right man in Mr. Tilson, who has since Mr. Blinley's death been doing the duties of the office.
 A pleasing feature in connection with the appointment, especially to Mr. Tilson, was that the board, as indicative of the feelings of the corps of teachers in the district both as to his qualifications and efficiency, was a petition from the 27 teachers of the district to the board asking that Mr. Tilson be appointed the succeeding principal. The petition was signed by the following: Visiting and fore the board was the selection of a new superintendent of the schools in the district to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Norman E.

 Bishop. The committee named at the last meeting to have the matter in mind reported through Chairman Browning that there had been about a dozen applications for the place, including a number from out of town and some from out of the state. These applicants were considered, but the board was unanimous in its selection of William D. Tilson, principal of the Central school.

 into operation the proposed line of the the directors, was in attendance at the meeting and told the members of the association about the advantages of the proposed line and setting forth including Sunday.

 Miss McCarthy was born March 12, 1828. Her father was George Robert McCarthy and Lucy W. Adams, who were natives of Norwich and belonged to a family who were among the old settlers. She had passed practically all of her life here. She lived a quiet and retired life, reading with her sister, Mrs. Julia A. Foster, who survives nieces and nephews.

Many Handing Lists TO BOARD OF ASSESSORS.

Over 250 Were at Their Office on Monday, One Man Raising His List $200 Voluntarily.

Monday was a busy day for the board of assessors and they received the lists of over 250 taxpayers who personally appeared before them. They were kept on the jump most of the time. One of the pleasing features of the day, and an unusual one, was that one man voluntarily raised his list $200 more than the assessed value. The board wishes there were more like him.
 There have been 4,800 blank lists with instructions sent out to owners of property, including non-residents.
 The new law relative to the handling of lists. There are many non-residents who are complying with the requirement that they must send in their list the same as residents. Already a large portion of the lists are in, but the board receives them for two weeks more before ten per centing them.
 The need of a card system is imperative for the successful operation of the department, state the members, and it is expected that it will be secured at the board of selectmen have authorized them to secure what is necessary to put the office on the proper basis. On Tuesday, Oct. 23, the board is going to Willimantic, when the state tax commissioner meets assessors for a conference, and the local board has a number of questions which they desire the commissioner to answer.

The London hansom seems to be on the decline. Other types of convey- ance are taking its place.
